Contemporary Art Auction: A Benefit

CCBF hosted its sixth annual Contemporary Art Auction on Wednesday, May 15th at Bonhams New York.

The exclusive evening featured after-hours access to Bonhams, a cocktail reception and the opportunity to browse and bid on CCBF's beautiful collection of paintings, photographs and sculptures.

CCBF chairperson Les J. Lieberman spoke appreciatively of the artists' generosity, "We were overwhelmed by the incredible support our organization received from the art community. With contributions from internationally renowned artists and studios, the highly anticipated 2013 art auction was one of our best auctions yet."

The auction offered a unique opportunity to purchase exciting works by leading contemporary artists including Andy Warhol, Richard Serra, Ed Ruscha, and Jasper Johns among many others.

As with all CCBF auctions, acquisitions were free of sales tax and buyer's premium, allowing proceeds to go directly to CCBF.

Film's Proceeds to Support CCBF

Excitement is building for the U.S. premiere of the film "Ways to Live Forever" a moving story of a 12-year-old boy, Sam, battling leukemia, and the ways that he and his friend, Felix, also a cancer patient, learn to cope with their diagnoses.

A portion of proceeds from the film's release will benefit CCBF and other cancer-related organizations. The film will begin showing in cities around the U.S. on July 19, including New York City at the AMC Empire 25 theatre!

Private Party at American Girl

On March 5th, CCBF celebrated our third annual Private Party at American Girl's dreamlike three-story flagship store.

Children and their families enjoyed a once-in-a-lifetime experience complete with American Girl's most popular activities, including a photo session at the Photo Studio, a special doll hairdo at the Doll Hair Salon, a "Creativitee" Doll Tee, and a special scavenger hunt.

Guests feasted on kid-friendly hors d'oeuvres and a dessert bar featuring mouth-watering treats. Thanks to the overwhelming generosity of American Girl, all costs were underwritten to ensure that 100% of the proceeds went directly to CCBF!
